It takes you back to the 1600s when the bubonic plague hit England; mostly places such as Derbyshire and London. You will learn about the lead up to the plague and how the people coped to survive; losing family and friends along the way. Read about how the disease spread like wild-fire through the population. There is a village most famous for the events of the plague. This is Eyam in Derbyshire. The village has been a tourist attraction for many years where people visit the old diseased houses, such as Rose Cottage. You can also walk around the church-yard of St Lawrence where many of the victims were buried; until the space ran out. The story of the bubonic plague is interesting, but also extremely sad.
