ADDRESSES PRESIDENTS ADDRESS By Edward E. Parke, Superintendent of Pipestone County. Fellow Superintendents: -- At the beginning of this, thirty-seventh season of our association it is meet that we should take a retrospective view of the events of the year almost past. It has been one of the greatest years in our national life. We have progressed so prosperously and so happily in all lines of statecraft, as well as in commercial activity. Let us hope that we have kept step educationally. , The parental care evidenced by our state in providing so generously for our educational institutions, and especially the work of the last legislature, we should ever bless; its work we should ever remember and be grateful for. The beneficent aid to rural schools, increased last year, the aid accorded to the new class called semi-graded schools at that session has quickened and...
