Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Trail magic; kindnesses from the hearts of strangers add magic to hiker s journeys. This magic is often small - a bottle of water, a ride into town, a candy bar. Sometimes the generosity is a meal or a bed for the night. The Holman s, day hikers themselves, live near the Pacific Crest Trail. They searched for a way to give back to their community. When they gave another hiker a ride into town and he asked about a laundromat, it opened up a new journey for them. Opening their home for washing clothes, eating a hot meal, and offering a bed (or a couch) for the night gave them more than they ever expected. Their world expanded as they met hikers from across the nation, and from around the world. Hearts were warmed with the sharing of evenings tales and the hikers soon gave Sue her own trail name - Trail Angel Mama. Step inside and see the Pacific Crest Trail from the other side of hiking, as Trail Angel Mama tells her story of this new and exciting venture. The Holman s discovered a new world in this journey as the hiker s appreciation touched their hearts in an unexpected way. They set out to share their blessings with other hikers. Instead, they discovered that they were the ones being blessed.
