

The Sacred Baby: Modern Meaningful Traditions to Celebrate a Woman s Journey Into Motherhood

By Jenifer Ingerman Miller

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 254 x 203 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Are you planning a baby shower? Celebrating a blessingway? Let our sacred grandmother, Mother of Pearls, speak to you from a place of wisdom and grace. Through sharing her personal stories and native traditions, she encourages you to deepen the connections you have with women in your own circle. She provides you with loving guidance while bestowing upon you the gift of a sacred continuum of knowledge; sharing with you the secrets of life as she learned them from her own mother, long ago. In The Sacred Baby, she gives you the tools you need to take your gathering to a whole new level. Here you will find many fun and easy-to-follow activities, some based on native traditions from around the world, that celebrate a woman s rite of passage into motherhood. The focus of these activities is to strengthen a woman s bonds with her family and her closest female friends, increase her awareness of her human connection to the earth and to the divine powers of the universe, and empower her to trust her instincts as...
